Gggg Numb. 2022.

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, Auguſt 11. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 11.

Rome, July 14.

A Congregatin of State has been held to deliberate on the Offer made by the Marquis de Prie in Quality of the Emperor's Plenipotentiary, to go to Ferrara to terminate amicably with the Cardinal Legate the Differences between the two Courts. But it has been reſolv'd not to hearken to any Propoſition of Accommodation, till the Imperialiſts have given up the Places they are poſſeſs'd of, and made Satisfaction to the Eccleſiaſtical State for the Ravages they have made in it.

Strasbourg, July 2. The 22d of laſt month, the Elector of Bavaria having left Troops ſufficient for guarding the Lines of Weiſſenbourg and the Banks of the Rhine, march'd and encamp'd at Langencandel, within 3 Leagues of Landau, where is plenty of Forrage. He immediately caus'd Men to be ſet to Work to make a Bridge to the Iſland of Hochſtet ſituate one League above Germersheim, and two below the Enemy's Lines. The Bridge was finiſh'd the 24th, and he ſent into the Iſland ſome Grenadiers, who intrench'd themſelves and by the great Fire they made diſpers'd the Enemy's Troops that appear'd on the other ſide. The 29th he commanded the Marquis de Broglio with 1800 Grenadiers or Dragoons, to make a Bridge over the little Arm of the Rhine that remain'd to be paſs'd: Which he executed with as much Diligence as Conduct; and intrench'd himſelf on the other ſide in a Village advantagiouſly ſituate for coveing the Head of the Bridge. By this Means his Electoral Highneſs broke the Meaſures which the Enemy had taken to lay a Bridge over the Rhine near that Place, to enter the lower Alſace; and is now in a Condition to level their Lines if they move to a Diſtance from them, or to cut off their Proviſions if they keep intrench'd there: Several Deſerters come over daily. Letters from Ratisbon of the 19th of laſt Month advile, that the 18th the Diet reſolv'd to declare to the Deputy of King Auguſtus, that the Empire cannot this Year take into their Pay the 3000 Horſe which he had offer'd, becauſe they had been able to collect but a moderate Sum of the Million of Crowns which they had reſolv'd to levy, and that beſides the Campaign is too much advanc'd to make an Uſe of thoſe Troops.

Bruſſels, Aug 3. The heavy Artillery brought from the Sas van Ghent to this City the 27th of laſt Month, conſiſted of 36 Pieces of Cannon, and not 60 as has been reported, and 12 Mortars. 20 Pieces of Cannon from Maeſtricht, arriv'd here the 1ſt Inſtant. Horſes are providing to draw this Artillery, and Waggons for carrying the Ammunition: But this Country not furniſhing a ſufficient Number, the Allies have offer'd to hire ſome of the Caſtellany of Liſle and the Neighbouring Countries, which anſwer'd that they were not oblig'd to it by the Treaty of Contributions; and that beſides 'twas not in their Power, becauſe they had receiv'd Orders to furniſh them to the French Army. Hereupon the Allies have been oblig'd to ſend Horſes from their Army, and the 26th paſt to command each Squadron to furniſh 5 Horſes, the Lieutenants General 6 Horſes and 3 Servants, the Majors General 4 Horſes and 2 Servants, the Brigadiers 2 Horſes and 1 Servant, and the Captains 1 Horſe. They have beſides ſent their Bread Waggons and Horſes, and order'd the Regiments to go themſelves to fetch their Bread from Menin. The Detachment commanded by the Count de Tilly have committed great Diſorders in the Country of Artois, the States of which having agreed the 29th to the Contributions, he has rejoin'd the Army. They write from Holland, that they were put into extreme Conſternation by the Irruption which the French made into the Iſland of Cadſant. This Occaſion gives the more Vexation to the Dutch, becauſe their Subjects alone are to pay the Contributions agreed for that Country and the Parts adjacent; whereas the Contributions for Artois are ſhar'd between them and their Allies.

London, Aug. 11.

Laſt Night arriv'd the Mail from Holland of Friday laſt.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Aug. 16.

Vienna, Aug. 4. This Morning General Heiſter's Son arriv'd here poſt from Hungary, with Advice that his Father having with him 5000 Horſe and 1500 Huſſars, attack'd near Trehtichin the Army of the Malecontents of about 28000 Men, and defeated them, killing 6000 and taking 400; with 14 Cannon and ſome Ammunition and Baggage. Prince Ragotski, Count Caroli, and Berczeni were in this Army, but 'tis not yet known what is become of them. On our Side about 700 Men were kill'd or wounded.

Dantzick, Auguſt 8. We have receiv'd from the Swediſh Army a particular Relation of the Victory they have obtain'd over the Muſcovites. The King of Sweden with 12000 Men attack'd 30000 Muſcovites commanded by Prince Menzikow ſtrongly intrench'd at Herowecz n, and after an obſtinate Fight, which laſted half a Day, beat them out of them and made them retire into a Wood: Of the Muſcovites 1400, and of the Swedes 5000 were kill'd. The Muſcovite Generals Repin, Campen, Galeczin, and Herisky were kill'd; as was the Swediſh Major General Wrangel, whoſe Regiment of 3000 Men were almoſt all cut off. The King of Sweden's Guards ſuffer'd much. Some Letters ſay, that after the Battle General Goltz made a good Diſpoſition of the Remainder of the Muſcovites, to put ſome kind of ſtop to the further Progreſs of the Swedes.

Geneva, Aug. 7. The Duke of Savoy caus'd 26 Pieces of Cannon to be brought over Mount Cenis to his Army at St. Jean de Maurienne, to induce the Marſhal de Villars to believe that he deſign'd to paſs the Iſere and attack the Fort of Barreaux; which ſucceeded, for the Marſhal drew all his Troops thither: But on a ſudden his Royal Highneſs turn'd back, march'd by the Col de la Roue and thro' the Valley of Bardonache to Mount Genevre, and poſſeſs'd himſelf of the narrow Paſſages of that Mountain: By which Means he gain'd the Opportunity to beſiege Exilles and Feneſtrelle, without fear of Interruption; becauſe to relieve thoſe Places the French muſt paſs ſome narrow Ways of the ſaid Mountain, which are defended by 6000 Piemontois and 14 Cannon.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Aug. 17.

Ipres, Auguſt 14. Yeſterday the Allies took Poſſeſſion of all the Avenues to Liſle, but moſt of their Troops are yet at the Diſtance of a Mile from the Place. The Marſhal de Boufflers makes great Preparation for a vigorous Defence. 'Tis reckon'd that at leaſt 3000 Women and Children are come hither from Liſle, beſides what have retir'd to Doway and Valenciennes.

Bruſſels, Aug. 15. 'Tis advis'd from the Camp before Liſle, that two Attacks are intended to be carried on againſt that City and two againſt the Citadel; del; and that in order to opening the Trenches, Prince Eugene (who is extremely rejoyc'd at the News of the Defeat of the Hungarian Malecontents) has caus'd above 50000 Faſcines to be got ready. The Beſieged fire hard with their Cannon, but have yet kill'd but 10 or 12 Soldiers who expos'd themſelves too near, and wounded 20 or 30. The Duke of Marlborough who is encamp'd at Helchin, has caus'd 8 or 9 Bridges to be laid over the Schelde, to keep a Communication with this City, and to be ready to oppoſe any Attempts the Enemy may form againſt Brabant. 94 heavy Cannon and 42 Mortars are to be employ'd againſt Liſle. Our Generals propoſe to be maſters both of the Town and Citadel within 16 Days after the Trenches are open'd. At Oſtend, Huiſt, and Sas van Gaent, ſuch Diſpoſitions are made, that they are not in the leaſt fear of the French.

Ghent, Aug. 15. The Duke of Burgundy, upon Intelligence that Liſle is inveſted, has Order'd his Army to be ready to march the 17th Inſtant. The French have laid ſeveral Bridges over the Canal of Bruges, and ſeveral others over the Lys and the Schelde not far from this Place. They give out they will march to Barbant; but 'tis believ'd the Duk of Marlborough, who is encamp'd with 60000 Men at Helchin, will prevent their putting that Deſign in Execution.

From the Camp at Helchin, Aug. 16. The 13th 12000 Pioneers, which had been ſummon'd in from the Country adjacent to Liſle, began to work on the Lines of Circumvallation before that Place; and Prince Eugene has ſent to Menin, for the Artillery deſign'd to be us'd in the Siege to march to joyn him to Morrow: All Preparations for that Siege are carrying on with the Application ſo great an Enterprize requires. A Lieutenant General marches to Morrow Morning to Templeuve, with 3000 Foot and 1000 Horſe; to cover the March of the Train of Artillery, as well from the Parties of the Garriſon of Tournay, as from the Duke of Berwick's Body of Forces which continue at Mortagne. King Auguſtus and the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel are arriv'd at Bruſſels, and having ſent a Compliment to the Duke of Marlborough, acquainting him that they deſign to paſs part of the Campaign in the Army and at the Siege of Liſle, Care is taken for their having a Guard hither; and they are expected this Evening or to Morrow Morning.
